"HOE YOUR OWN ROW.

I think there are some maxims
Under the sun
Scarce worth preservation;
But here, boys, is one,
So sound and so simple,
'Tis worth while to know;
And all in the single line,
Hoe your own row!

If you want to have riches,
And want to have friends,
Don't trample the means down
And look for the ends;
But always remember,
Wherever you go,
The wisdom of practising
Hoe your own row!

Don't just sit and pray
For increase of your store,
But work—who will help himself,
Heaven helps more.
The weed while you're sleeping,
Will come up and grow,
But if you would have the
Full ear, you must hoe!

Nor will it do only
To hoe out the weeds,
You must make your ground mellow
And put in the seeds;
And when the young blade
Pushes through, you must know
There is nothing will strengthen
Its growth like the hoe!

There's no use of saying,
What will be will be;
Once try it, lack-brain,
And see what you'll see!
Why, just small potatoes,
And few in a row;
You'd better take hold, then,
And honestly hoe!

A good many workers
I've known in my time—
Some builders of houses,
Some builders of rhyme;
And they that were prospered
Were prospered, I know,
By the intent and meaning of
Hoe your own row!

I've known too, a good ma
Idlers, who said,
I've a right to my living,
The world owes me bread!
A right! lazy lubber!
A thousand times, No!
'Tis his, and his only,
Who hoes his own row!

Currency.

EDITOR HERALD:—The San Francisco Bulletin of the 30th ult says. "The recent events in New York saw the wisdom of California in steadily retaining the metallic currency. So far there have been no failures among our merchants, etc." Very true, and why? First, Because the crisis was confined entirely to railroad rings, which were [illegible] from the mercantile community. Second, The government of the United States having inaugurated, and fostered these monopolies from their very beginning to the present, could not afford to stand aside and see all their favorite enterprises, together with their pet bankers, and operators engulphed in common ruin, when they could prevent it. Hence the prompt action of President Grant, and Secretary Richardson, Boutwell and others. These great corporations were created by the party, and now the very existence of the party depends to a good extent upon the continuance, and solvency of these monopolies. If the treasurer of the government had not came to the front promptly, every business man in the country would have felt the crisis severely. Third, The mercantile community of any country is never in danger while they conduct business as they do in California. They seldom extend any credit, and when they do, it is only for a short time—sixty or ninety days, and this little favor is generally repaid by a half or two per cent per month.

They buy the produce of the farmers at a great discount and sell it for a profit. No, the mercantile community of California are in no danger, and never will be so as long as they and the bankers can keep out of competition. But the farmers, the very life of the country, will fail by the thousands. Better that we pass through a crisis every ten years than to starve in the premises to death,

There will never be any capital to invest in the products of the farm, so long as money can be loaned at 2 and 3 per cent. per month, unless they can invest at rates that will insure a larger profit. Money will never be invested in produce or in building up the manufacturing interest of a country where it can be loaned at 18 to 20 per cent. per annum.

If money can be had at 10 per cent., those who have it will invest in machinery, or speculate in grain, or new enterprises will be undertaken, which will develop the country.

We assert it as a fact, that while we have one of the best farming countries under the sun, also a grazing and stock-raising country hardly equalled by any on the continent; yet, if it were not for the mining interests of California we would be bankrupt. About one hundred men control the purse-strings of the State, and the lighter they make financial matters the greater their gains. There is nothing they so much dread as a surplus of money in the country. That which would give great prosperity to everybody else, would diminish their dividends.

If currency was introduced into this State by an Act of the Legislature, millions would be brought here to invest in lands, in manufactories and in mines, which would at once give a profitable market for all the products of the farm.

San Diego.

Capt. Wilcox has gone to San Francisco.——Captain McAlmond has made a contract to haul telegraph poles to Burke's station.——It is proposed to have two good races, and several minor ones, on each day of the race week., and to offer daily about $333. Half the money has been raised.——The following named persons are the directors of the Bank of San Diego: G. P. Marston, Jas. A. Evans, E. W. Morse, J. M. Price, W. E. Robson, T. L. Nesmith, C. Dunham, D. Cleveland, and G. W. Geddes.

The City Press and the Judgeships.

EDITOR HERALD:—I have read with interest your timely and temperate suggestions on the subject of he approaching Judicial election, and fully concur in your opinions as to the importance of a careful and discriminating judgment of the relative merits of candidates who aspire to the honor and dignity of the bench. But, like yourself, Mr. Editor, I am a "new comer." I have, however, resided here a sufficient length of time to become a citizen, and availed myself of the privileges afforded to citizens by the elective franchise at the late election. I voted the "Independent Ticket." The canvass was efficiently conducted on both sides, and voters were enabled to vote intelligently. But in the pending canvass for Judicial officers, I, for one, must confess that I scarcely know who to vote for. I hail from one of those grand old Middle States where the intelligent voter is accustomed to take counsel of the public press in all matters pertaining to public affairs. There it is the invariable rule that a successful public journal must be an honest one, and the people are swift to discern the elements of trustworthiness, or the reverse of it, on the part of a newspaper editor. It is, perhaps, for this reason that the press is generally honest, and the people are willing to abide its counsels. It is a peculiarity of the human race, that in migrating, people carry with them their distinctive characteristics and notions. I have brought mine along with me. I read the newspapers, and especially those of this city. It is seldom that an original item or idea in any of them escapes my eye. I have watched with unfailing interest, and lately with impatience, the editorial columns of your contemporaries for a candid discussion (or any discussion at all) of the relative merits of the various candidates for Judges and Justices of the Peace, but they are as silent as the Sphynx.

There are two candidates in the field for the office of District Judge, three for County Judge, and somewhere in the neighborhood of a baker's dozen who want to be Justices of the Peace. Are these men all equally competent and equally honest, so that we may not err in a choice of candidate on our ballots? I am afraid not, and yet I know but little about them. It is the boasted province of public journals to give direction and guidance to public sentiment. If the newspapers of this city have any claim to that honorable distinction they will no longer compel the unenlightened voter to grovel in the dark respecting the merits of candidates in the field, but will indicate the proper persons to be voted for and assign reasons for the faith there is in them.

It is now the eleventh hour of the canvass, and those laborers in the public vineyard are still idle.

I am of a somewhat religious turn of mind, and often when perplexed in my efforts to adapt causes to effects, I seek for a solution of the difficulty in the pages of holy writ. In conning, recently, its sacred teachings, I chanced upon the following text in the 6th and 7th verses of the 20th chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew: "And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and said unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us."

I am in a quandry, Mr. Editor, as to whether this text has any application to your esteemed contemporaries of this city. Possibly it has not.

TESTIMONIALS:
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA,
DEPARTMENT OF LANGUAGES.
OAKLAND, July 11, 1872.
Herewith I certify that Miss Josephine Lindley has been a student in my department of the University for five consecutive terms, viz: from September, 1870, to April 3d, 1872. During this time she studied the French, the Spanish and the German languages, obtaining always the highest marks for proficiency and attendance, her average credit mark for five terms being 97 per cent.
On entering the University, Miss Lindley possessed already such knowledge of the French and Spanish idioms as to be able to speak them with ease, fluency, correctness, and a pure pronunciation.
She may now be considered thoroughly familiar with the theory and philosophy, as well as with the application of these two tongues; and she may safely be recommended as a candidate of great promise, for teaching the French and Spanish languages.

Los Angeles Herald.

SUNDAY,............OCTOBER 5, 1873.

Attention is called to the reading matter on the first and fourth pages. The extra dispatches also are a special feature in to-day's issue. The accumulation of matter during the break down of the Telegraph wires has deprived this office of half its special telegrams. The HERALD will alway contain the same telegraphic news as the San Francisco evening papers.

The Independent Platform.

The Peoples' Independent Party met in Convention at Sacramento, and, having adopted the platform published in yesterday's edition, nominated Judge McKinstry for Supreme Judge. They, probably, took this stand after mature thought, and having a higher field point from which to view the battle, than that of an ordinary observer. But perhaps, in taking in this step, they have gone further than many, who earnestly supported them in the general election, will be willing to follow. Judge McKee, the Democratic nominee, is universally acknowledged to be a man of the highest ability and integrity. For term after term he has been elected in a district strictly Republican, because the members of both parties had an unswerving faith in him. Every plank in the platform which expresses an issue, the HERALD accepts, and accepts with its entire devotion; but it can not but doubt the expedience of issuing it, and nominating a judicial candidate upon it. The exigencies of the rights of the people did not demand at this time this movement. No breath has ever been breathed against Judge McKee. No one has charged him with being under the influence and control of any corporation or clique. No one has doubted his judicial acumen or integrity. This being the case, it would seem unwise to put in the field against him, another who may even be his equal in all these respects. By so doing, it is possible the election of a third and worse man may be brought about. The fight of the people against monopoly is not one that will die out. A delay in organizing will not put out the burning issues which have been kindled into a flame. But a hasty departure, before all are ready to accept its necessity, will produce irreparable injury.

Allegiance to Party.

[illegible]legiance to party constitutes the [illegible]-work of corruption. It means, [illegible] cases out of ten, fidelity to [illegible] men, and infidelity to the fair [illegible] of the people. Par[illegible] is a tyranny greater [illegible] slavery, even when painted [illegible] Beecher Stowe. It stands [illegible]faringly in the noon-day heat [illegible]ies, that it is the first point at[illegible] by the Independent Convention. It drags so many good men into [illegible]re, keeps so many honest [illegible], and hoodwinks so many [illegible]pright voters, that this wall [illegible] allegiance, this loathsome, [illegible]ynonym for corruption, be[illegible] a necessity the first strong[illegible]led. For the thousands who [illegible]itical regeneration, the first [illegible]ke is to declare their political [illegible]ence. To say "I belong to [illegible], I hope for no personal gain [illegible] vote. I am free and untram[illegible] must be the watchword of [illegible]od voter.

[illegible]en who have hitherto suc[illegible] boasted that they own so [illegible] votes, and command so much [illegible]nce, are in future the men who [illegible]enly attacked and forcibly [illegible]om their pedestal. The [illegible] unbiassed conviction and [illegible]t, is repudiation of all con[illegible]h them.

[illegible]e parties eventually grow [illegible] The drunkenness at elections, [illegible]sitical attitude of candidates, but drops in the ocean of proofs [illegible] can be brought to bear upon this point alone.

[illegible]he new line of thought summons [illegible]ts ranks men who differ on many [illegible]nor points, and bids them unite for [illegible] next few years, to rescue the peo[illegible] from the iron heel of monopolies. [illegible]ity that can avail against [illegible] preserv[illegible]. It is only strict integ[illegible] and wou[illegible] fight with such utter [illegible]

[illegible]TS have reached this of[illegible] non-receipt of the paper. Subscribers will please remember that the organization of a new route is always a little difficult for the Carrier. In a day or two things will run quite smoothly. There are very few people who remember when they take up their morning paper that a great portion of it is written when they are asleep. The Express commences in the early morning and continues till the evening. Work on the HERALD is heaviest between 10 P. M. and 3 A. M. The clock has just struck three, as this item is being set up, and the telegraph arrangements of the HERALD promise to keep operators and compositors working always up till 4 A. M. Naturally, as work systematizes the hours will not be so long and the arrival of Steam Power will help matters considerably. With hand labor the new press turns out the edition of 600 in one hour and the first edition of the Cronica was ruu off in forty-five minutes. As matters stand at present one or other of the Editors of the HERALD may generally be seen walking home about 5 A. M., but as long as a good result is obtained and a thoroughly excellent paper offered to the public they are quite satisfied. Whether the HERALD is fulfilling the promises of its prospectus, is for the people of Los Angeles to decide, and on that judgment the HERALD is content to flourish or decay.

Needless Barbarity.

The presence of two reprieved Modocs, shackled and placed in front of the gallows of the condemned Indians, is a refinement of cruelty worthy only of ages of persecution. In days when Catholics and Protestants, under the name of religion, committed alike unjust and cruel deeds, such a thing as this would not have been tolerated. The agony of a condemned man as he walks up the stairs to expiate his crime, is too fearful a thing to hold up as an instrument of torture to those whom the law is punishing in a different way. There was no necessity to drag out the reprieved men and make them gaze, all ironed as they were, on the last terrible end of their accomplices. Any one who has ever beheld his fellow man suddenly and violently deprived of his existence, must feel that the more privately the fearful sentence is carried into effect the better it must be. To make a sensation of that sickening process of binding, tying and hurling a man into eternity can subserve no good end. Captain Jack and the others suffered most justly for their brutal murders. Hanging was, indeed, too good for them; but there is a difference between a murder and an execution. The first is the result of hate and evil passions, the second is the calm dignified act of the law. Foully horrible as was the treacherous butchery of Gen. Canby, Dr. Thomas and others, yet the placing of Barnacho and Sloiux in front of the scaffold whilst their comrades passed from life to the throne of the Great Judge, was an illadvised, useless and indecent act.

The Mancusi Opera Troupe is enjoying a very successful season in San Francisco. Trovatore, Lucia, Crispino, Faust, Ballo in Maschero, Ernani, Traviata, Il Barbiere, and other operas have already been given with great éclat. There is no reason why San Francisco should not have an opera season equal to that of Paris, London or Milan. The money is there to compensate the artists, and all that is wanted is, that good operas shall be rendered by competent artists at a fair price. The custom of puffing artists inordinately is too common. It ensures one or two good houses and a bankrupt season. Furores as a rule throughout the world have a corresponding re-action.

Anaheim.

The canal of the "Land Company," now being surveyed costs less than supposed.——The last steamer took from Anaheim Landing 400 bales wool and 500 sacks grain.——At a meeting held at Gospel Swamp School House, it was decided not to organize a grange.——The lumber company at Anaheim Landing have suspended.—Mr. R. Egan left on Thursday for Prescott in charge ot 600 head of horses, belonging to Chico Foster.——One hundred and forty-two in the public schools.

Westminster.

Two artesian wells have been completed.——A new $100 organ has been bought by the church.——Dr. McCoy is erecting a fine building.

A thorough examination of the hull of the "Costa Rica" in the Dry Dock confirms the statement already made that the injuries are not so serious that they cannot be made good in a few days. It is none less true that the steamer lay in a very dangerous position, and that a heavy sea of any duration would have broken her up. Besides the large hole in her hull, near the bow, there are three or four small cracks, which by swaying and grinding, would in a few days have become formidable fractures, and the iron is worn away so much at places that a general smashing in of plates would have been more than probable had the effort to tow her off the rocks been protracted. The engines and shaft are comparatively uninjured, but the fans of the propeller are all broken off. A new propeller will be cast at the Risdon Works, and the substitute plates required for the bottom have already been ordered. The expense of repairing will not be less than $15,000.

THE word thimble was originally derived from the words "thumb" and "bell;" being at first thumble, and afterwards thimble. It is of Chinese invention, and was introduced into England about the year 1695, by John Lotting, who came from Holland, and commenced its manufacture in Islington, near London, pursuing it with great success. Formerly iron and brass were used, but latterly steel, silver and gold have taken their places. In the ordinary manufacture thin plates of metal are introduced into a die, and then punched into shape. In Paris, gold thimbles are manufactured to a large extent. Thin sheet iron is cut into disks of about two inches in diameter. These, being heated into a red heat, are struck with a punch into a number of holes, gradually increasing in depth to give them the proper shape. It is then rimmed, polished and indented around its outer surface with a number of little holes by means of a small wheel. It is converted into steel by the process of cementation, tempered, scoured, and brought to a blue color. A thin sheet of gold is introduced into the interior and fastened to the steel by means of a polished steel mandel. Gold leaf is then applied to the outside and attached to it by pressure, the edges being fastened in a small groove made to receive them. The thimble is then finished and ready for use.

THE DUTIES OF AN EDITOR.—The London Spectator, having been asked by a correspondent, "What is the liberality of an editor to his personal friends?" replies: "Strictly speaking, he should have no friends. He should attack his own father if he disapproves of his speeches, or criticise his wife's last book if he thinks it rubbish. The journalist is bound, as the statesman would be bound, to do his duty and take the consequences. He might be a little more gentle in his language, a little more apologetic in his tone, but the attack must not be deprived of its efficiency for any personal consideration whatever."

EASTERN DISPATCHES

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The match game of billiards between Garnier and Daly, for the championship and the diamond cue, was won by Garnier in 47 innings.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—A very destructive condition of affairs exists in Central Asia. Civil war is raging in Kohakan. It is believed that the Emperor of Russia will be obliged, in self-defence, to occupy the territory and reduce it to condition as a Russian province.

The sentence of the Modocs Slolux and Branacho is commuted to imprisonment for life at Alcatraz.

The National Trust Company will resume Monday next.

Kidder & Co. settled for 50 cents on the dollar and resumed.

A Grand Evangelical Conference assembled to-day. Steinway Hall was filled to overflowing. Several Oriental delegates appeared wearing turbans. W. E. Dodge called the Convention to order and extended a cordial welcome to the delegates. Rev. M. Prochet, from Italy, said that the Pope is conscious of his diminished power, and that priests don't generally believe in his assumption of authority.

Affairs in financial circles continue to improve. The closing day of the three days of grace, which have been allowed to brokers making up private settlements, brings with it no new disaster beyond the suspension of the small broker house of Albert Cole, which exercised no influence on the market. Only 1,000 shares of various stocks were sold out under the rule for delinquent parties. There were considerable purchases to-day, divided between paying securities Eu opean accounts. The savings banks and investors were free buyers of Government bonds. All mercantile obligations are being met with promptness.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Peake & Opdyke have suspended. Their liabilities are $2,500,000.

MISCELLANEOUS.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3.—It is stated from Washington on the authority of Ex-Governor Cook, that the firm of Jay, Cook & Co., will soon make proposition to their creditors for the purpose of enabling it to resume business. The members of the firm have pooled their private property, and personal assessments, and will place them at the command of their creditors in liquidation of their indebtedness. They propose to pay every cent they owe.

J. A. Young, money order clerk, Brooklyn post-office, is missing. He is a defaulter to an amount unknown.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 3.—The financial panic appears to have reached its height. The Commercial Bank, a small private installation, closed this morning, under a run of small depositors. Later the report that the Commercial Bank had closed was premature. It has only stopped the payment of large checks.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—One of the morning papers states that a chinese gambling house is in existence here. The number of Chinese now in this city is quite large.

GALVESTON, Oct. 2.—The town of Lampas was inundated on Saturday last by a sudden rise in the creek that flows through the place. The water ran so swiftly that some twenty houses were carried away, including the Postoffice and its contents, and two stores and their contents. Six persons were drowned.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 2.—There were 41 interments to-day. Twenty-seven were from yellow fever. The Citizens' Committee has issued an appeal to all charitable people in the country to aid them to hire nurses, to bury the dead and to shelter the orphans. Contributions may be sent by telegraph to Mayor Johnson.

TOLEDO, Oct. 2.—A fire this morning destroyed Osborne, Chase & Co.'s picture frame factory, the Toledo Pump Co.'s factory and Russell & Thayer's Novelty works. Loss, $66,000; insurance, $32,000.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The Times this morning, in an editorial retrospect of late American financial panics, says: "The corruption and dishonesty which has marked the later characteristic management of some of the greatest undertakings in America have induced a chronic nervousness which is momentarly liable to become acute. Even Americans are not all smart men if daring speculators. Danger has disappeared for the present, but political and financial causes are liable to reproduce it at any time. A country with an immense field for enterprise, and comparatively a limited capital is always liable to panics. Improvements made in western communication are most useful and profitable, but may cause further trouble. The entire blame of the disaster rests upon the unsound monetary system of the country.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—Thiers having been notified by telegraph to-day of impending political movements in France and that his presence is much desired here, started for the city. He arrived this evening and stated that Count de Chambord will arrive at Geneva from Frohsdorf on the 4th inst.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A chimney 200 feet high at North Fleet fell to-day killing five persons, and maiming about a dozen others.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—The city is full of conflicting rumors to-day relative to the Political situation, and much excitement is caused by the report that the Permanent Committee of the Assembly would order that body to meet on the 13th inst.

LONDON, October 4.—There is a reported failure of the crops in Hungary. A famine is predicted.

PARIS, October 4.—The Republicans are taking active measures to resist the schemes of the monarchists.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—775,000 dollars in bullion was shipped from Liverpool for New York yesterday and $430,000 for Montreal. A dispatch from Cartagena says that the insurgents' frigates were not injured during the bombardment of Alcante. No one on board was killed. They are taking in coal and making preparations to attack Valencia. The Spanish government has issued orders requiring all vessels which have arrived at ports in Spain from Liverpool to undergo quarantine.

Governor Stanford certainly has reason to be proud of his horse. He has not only beaten the fastest time ever made in this State, but has equaled the fastest time ever made by a trotting horse, that being the time made by Goldsmith Maid at Boston, Massachusetts. George Tennant, the driver of Occident, is a very young man, and has had little experience in driving in races, never having driven but five. He has been in the employ of E. H. Miller, Jr., and Governor Stanford for sometime, but only commenced handling Occident a few months ago.

Robt. Burke, policeman, committed suicide last night by shooting himself through the head with a pistol.

A boy eight years of age has been arrested for setting fire to seven buildings in the city at different times, just to hear bells ring and see firemen run.

Mary O'Neil, a little girl living with her parents, was badly burned yesterday. She died last night. She set fire to her clothing with some matches.

A wealthy gentleman of this city will within a few weeks establish a technical school for boys on purpose to teach them to work wood and metals.

The case of Capt. Clarke, of the ship Sunshine, is still before the U. S. grand jury.

Capt. Clarke has been released on bail. The Post advises a vigilance committee to be formed in order to meet out justice to the Capt., should he not be convicted.

An effort has been made to get the notorious George Hoge out on a habeas corpus, and a man named Tagle arrested for robbery, but the application was denied.

The demurrer in the case of the People vs. Marks, the Labor Commissioner, indicted for embezzlement, was argued to-day and submitted to the Judge of the Municipal court, for decision. The principal objection was that its indictments do not charge that the defendant was in the employ of the State at the time of the alleged embezzlement.

In the case of the contested election between Hubert and Bauer for City Treasurer, Judge Stanley rendered his decision to-day ordering the recount of votes.

Ah Chin Suey (President) Neng Yeng Co., and Chief Inspector of six Chinese companies died on Thursday night, after an illness of two days, and was buried with great pomp and display this afternoon.

There were 77 deaths in this city during the week.

The Eureka Gold Mining Company declared a dividend amounting to $40,000 payable next Tuesday.

Joseph Lindsey sued Sheriff Adams to recover $4000 the amount of reward offered for recapture of the Brotherton brothers when they broke jail. He says that the Sheriff knew nothing of the whereabouts of the forgers till he told where they were concealed.

The U. S. Grand Jury has indicted Capt. Clark of the ship Sunrise, and his mates Harris and Maloney. The latter has not yet been found.

The wife of Wm. Guimans and four children were out on the Cliff House road this evening in a carriage when the horses took fright and ran away. The occupants of the carriage were all thrown out. A little girl only 9 years of age had her arm dislocated at the shoulder. Mrs. Guimans had her arm broken. The rest were badly bruised.

THE MODOCS.

The Fate of the Modocs—Captain Jack and a number of his Murderous Confederates Executed—The Sentence of two Commuted to Imprisonment.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4th.

The following is a report of the execution at Fort Klamoth yesterday, of Jack and his band. Boston Charley and Black Jim were led on the scaffold first, and Sconchin next. They mounted with apparent indifference and iron nerve, having evidently resolved to die as brave as they have lived. Jack went easily up the stairway, but looked wretched and miserable. His fetters had been struck off, but his arms were securely pinioned with cords. At 9:45 A. M., interpreters Capt. O. C. Applegate and David Hill, explained to the culprits the nature of the order to be read to them by the Adjutant, and at 10 A. M. Adjutant Kingsbury read the orders promulgating the sentence of the Commission, and the Presidents order therein, with the orders of the Secretary of War, and the Deputy Commander in the premises. The two reprieved prisoners, Barnacho and Slolux, stood on the ground in front of the scaffold, shackled and under guard. During the reading the prisoned victims were seated on the platform of the scaffold, with their feet on the drop listening anxiously, but not understaning a word. The reading occupied ten minutes, then the Adjutant read an order of commutation in the case of Barnacho and Slolux. They were taken to the guard house. The Chaplain offered a prayer for the souls of the culprits, which was listened to attentively. At 10:15 the nooses were placed around their necks, under the direction of Capt. Hoge. It was necessary to cut off some of Capt. Jack's long hair which was in the way of the rope. Captain Hoge then bid farewell to the prisoners and black caps were placed over the heads of all the culprits. At 10:20 they stood on the drop, the rope was cut by an assistant at the signal made by Capt. Hoge with a handkerchief, and the bodies swung round and round. Jack and Jim apparently died easily, but Boston and Schonchin suffered terrible convulsions. They repeatedly drew up their legs, but the others seemed to die almost instantly. As the drop fell with a terribly deadly thug, a half smothered cry of horror went up from the crowd of over 500 Klamath Indians, who witnessed the awful spectacle. Wails of deep and bitter anguish went up from the stockade where the wives and children of the condemned had a fair view of the scene. Coffins, six in number, had been placed directly in the rear of the gallows, two of them destined to be unoccupied, as the order committing the sentence of Barnacho and Slolux only arrived at 10:20 last evening, and preparations had been made for them likewise.

The following is the passenger list by the steamer Ventura, for Santa Barbara:

R. Brilzomman and wife, P. Gaffney, Mrs. A. Rothman and three children, Miss O'Connel, Dr. O'Connel, Henry T. Hobart, A Hayman and wife, Chas G. Hails Mrs. Richard Hail, Miss Abbie and Mary Hails, E. M. Hoit and wife, Miss Emma Charlesworth, Miss Lizzie Vischer, Mrs. S. D. Higgins, Mrs. A. M. Bennet, A. W. McConnell, E. O. Heinon, Geo Albert, W. Hendrick and wife, Chas G. Heidrick, J. T. Terry, wife and child, J. C. Terry, David Splain Irthmer Miner and wife, Wm. Smith, W. B. Horton, Mrs. M. F. Homan, Mrs. M. B. Thompson, Herman Schell, Jimmy Conness, Geo. Ferral, G. H. Stockton, R. Agail, A Winchester.

To San Buenaventura—W. W. Sparks, Mrs. L. Hanstead, Mrs. R. R. Hall, C. S. Prebble, Jas. Montgomery, Miss McGlinchey.

ENGLAND'S ATTITUDE.—England's attitude toward Spain is very clearly defined. She has made a declaration of her policy by seizing the insurgents vessels and holding them until they can be delivered safely to the Republican Government. We suppose her policy is approved by the other great powers, for none of them will make any sort of protest to her action.—[Inyo Independent.

☞ Los Angeles county, wherever known, is acknowledged to be an earthly paradise. Here we have perpetual summer. Fruits ripen, and flowers bloom the year round. But chief among its many advantages is cheap living. McDonald's Restaurant, on Commercial street, the best. One trial of the nice Coffee, Tea, Tenderloin Steak, Fresh Eggs and Ranch Butter, proves that it is the best place in town. Single meals, 25 cents.

☞ Jay Cooke would still have been solvent had he held up his head in Wall street, covered with one of Desmond's Silk Hats. A man who was refused credit, last week, all over the town, got a note for $1,000 endorsed by simply investing his last piece in a Hat at Desmond's. Opposite the United States Hotel, in the Temple Block.

Amusements.

A good audieuce assembled last night at the Merced Theatre to witness the first perfoemance in Los Angeles of the great emotional play of "Harriet Routh." The drama is in three acts' and its action extends over a period of twenty years; so that it is not strange that an enormous amount of incident should be crammed into it. The general principles of the author seem to be surprises, accidents, pistols and murder, all of which were carried out to perfection. Stewart Routh, as played by Mr. Piercy, goes through an incredible number of vicissitudes, but invariably escapes from his troubles by means of a six-barrelled revolver, which he carries in a conspicuous and convenient place. In the first Act he is the husband of Harriet Routh, (Madame Duret,) but in the second Act he meets with a beautiful brunette, Mrs. Bembridge, cleverly played by Miss Lipsis, a very Josie Mansfield for captivating the hearts of married men. The close of this act was of an unusually thrilling (?) character.

George Dallas, the "Black Buck," excellently played by Mr. Fenton, is forbidden to enter the house of his mother by one of those stepfathers who are generally in the road. He is falsely accused of murder, but Jim Swain, (Mr. Lipsis,) the boot-black, is "on hand," and lets the cat out of the bag, receives a new box of blacking and a brush, and expects to be "happy yet."

The patronage extended to the Le Roy Duret Troupe is not so good as deserved. The acting of the troupe is throughout deserving of praise and their energy undoubted.

Good News for the Farmers.

Telegraphic dispatches of latest dates quote the price of wheat at $2 25@2 30 per cental. The rise and fall of all products will always be carefully noted, and from a particular feature in the conduct of the HERALD.

The usual Saturday auction took place yesterday. There was lively bidding.

Oak stove-wood is bringing seven and nine dollars per cord at present, in the market.

The Rev. Dr. Stump will deliver his farewell sermon in the Fort street M. E. Church to-day.

It is anticipated that the corn crop in Los Nietos will be larger this year than heretofore.

The new seal for the Chamber of Commerce will probably be down on the next steamer. It has a design representing Commerce.

The Mohongo is due this morning, but it is probable she will not arrive until late this afternoon.

One and a-half car loads of wool, with other merchandise, were dispatched yesterday to Wilmington.

By the carelessness of the Water Co., yesterday the store No. 20 Aliso street, was very nearly excavated.

The new Coroner elect will not "sit" until next April—and not then unless the duties of the office require it.

W. M. McFadden, of Anaheim, County Superintendent of Public schools, is stopping at the Bella Union Hotel.

Simon Levy has at his office specimens of Doffelmeyer's wool, washed before shearing. It will be well for all sheep-raisers to call and examine.

The Fair of the Sisters of Charity will be held at Stearn's Hall during the latter part of October, and promises a large attendance.

The attenion of the Health officer is called to the condition of the gutter in front of the Bella Union Hotel. People may be seen holding their noses when passing by.

Next Thursday, delegates from all over the county will meet at Gallatin, to consider the ways and means of developing and increasing the water supply, and to memorialize the legislature.

The friends and enemies of the District Judge candidates are respectively throwing dirt at their opponents, and lauding to the skies their friends. This will only last ten days longer, then there will be a rest.

Mr. L. H. Thomas, of Cincinnati, Ohio, reports that that city gave a grand holiday on the 24th of Sept. last, to celebrate the success of the Exposition. Closed stores and parades were the order of the day.

Will some christian person buy a new parrot instead of the one that swings in front of a grocery store on Main street, or dispatch some kind and benevolent gentleman to "interview" it upon the profane language it uses?

One George Sherman, to save the trouble of arrest, gave himself up to the police for "putting improvements on the head of a Celestial." He thought that three or four Chinamen with big heads on might sell as an improved lot.

Mr. Prater brought in a fine specimen of rock yesterday. He says the ledge from which it was taken is 8 feet wide. The rock was very rich in silver and lead. The locality of the ledge is somewhere in the Slate Ranges.

Suggestions have been made by some of the citizens to prevail on Dr. Lord (who is at present delivering a course of lectures in San Francisco for the benefit of the Los Angeles Library,) to give a series of lectures in this city.

The new building opposite the depot of the Los Angeles and San Pedro Railroad is being erected for Messrs. Newmark & Co., and will be used by them as a warehouse for the storage of wool, hides and grain.

Don Andres Pico was yesterday occupied, in front of the Pico House, teaching the "young idea how to run." The crowd of by-standers seemed to enjoy the fun as well as the little fellows, and when the "go" was announced, the boys would "git up and git."

Congregational Church—Subject for Sunday morning: "Sowing and reaping, or, Darwinism contradicted by two simple laws of Nature." Evening subject: "The fall of Sampson," concluding discourse. Young men are earnestly invited to attend.

The friends of Don Matero Lanfranco, will regret to hear of his demise yesterday morning, from the effects of paralysis. Mr. L. was over sixty years of age. It is understood that he left quite a large fortune to be divided among his relatives. R. S. P.

There were three "candidates" up before the Mayor, yesterday, to answer to the charges of being drunk and disorderly. Not having the necessary "perks" his Honor assessed them. They finally received the announcement of election, and were for the present assigned rooms in the Hotel de Clancy, first floor.

J. B. Saunders & Co., received a letter yesterday from Lyon and Rosenthal of Riverside, San Bernardino county, asking what price they could pay for "Riverside Opium." This is the first opium ever raised in California, and is pronounced as a good quality, and is invariably called for by the Chinamen.

The shadow which had fallen over the lovers of hot lunches has cleared away. The Orient Saloon has again instituted this commendable practice and is crowded daily with gentlemen, who prefer a bowl of soup, standing, to going home to lunch. The saloon of Weston & Harris is just such a place to look for a friend at midday, as Blossom's or the Merchants' Exchange is, in San Francisco.

Services of the Episcopal church until further notice, will be held in the Hall of the Good Templars, No. 84 Main street, over the store of Caswell & Ellis. Hours, 11 A. M. and 8 P. M., Sunday School 9½ A. M. This is considered necessary on account of the apparent insecure condition of the church building. This arrangement it is hoped will be but temporary, as negotiations are being made for the transfer of the building and lot to other parties in exchange for property more suitable for church purposes.

To the kindness of the San Diego operator and the good will of Mr. Sheppard the HERALD is indebted for all the special Southern Dispatches received during the break down of the wires. These dispatches contained interesting and important news, including that of the revolution at Panama. It is to be hoped that from henceforth wires will keep up.

A reporter of one of the daily papers in taking a stroll down a dark, side street, last night, came in contact with what he supposed was the "sign" of some optician, and was suddenly reminded that it was not, as it proved to be, the man with a "skylight" covering his optic, apparently fast asleep. The reporter having the qualities of a gentleman, immediately after the collision, says: "I beg your pardon." "What the (hic) are you trying (hic) to do?" was the answer, expressed in a low guttural tone, which suddenly came from the region of the ground. There was a fumbling of hands in the "sign's" pocket as if he was getting his "gun" ready for a bombardment. This last proceeding caused the "vamose" of the reporter—to be careful hereafter whose skylight he is entering.

Our first Sunday's] issue does not contain the systematized Religious intelligence that is desirable. Pastors of Churches will, in future, please send memoranda of their services to this office on Saturdays by 2 P. M., if they desire their publication. The usual servicos will take place in all churches to-day, and the farewell sermons of the Revs. Wernly and Stump will be preached.

A gentleman, who does not desire publicity, was in the HERALD office this afternoon with some very rare specimens of old newspapers. He possesses twenty-one of the oldest newspapers in the United States, amongst which are the first copies of the Louisville Journal, published in 1837, and also J. Gordon Bennett's first issue of the New York Herald, bearing the date of 6th of May, 1835. The latter is just the size of the "Mirror," published in this city.

Yesterday was the Feast of San Francis. Quite a number of happy gatherings followed the religious celebration of the day among our Spanish and Catholic fellow citizens.

OUR INDUSTRIES.

The Products and Factories of Los Angeles.

The Los Angeles Soda Works on Aliso street, owned by Henry Stoll, started abont five years ago. During the summer time the factory turns out from 80 to 100 dozen of soda daily, and even in the winter the amount per diem often reaches 40 dozen inclusive of the supply of sarsaparilla. In the factory are two soda fountains, a cooler, a generator, and an acid chamber, These are worked by cold steam or carbonic acid gas, and the steam guage often indicates a pressure of 90lbs to the square inch. The bottling machine is an ingenious contrivance, and less dangerous than many other kinds in use. Mr. Stoll uses about 300 pounds of sugar weekly, and has a running stock of 1,200 pounds on hand. He furnishes all the fancy ice cream saloons with soda fountains, and all the hotels, etc., with plain and sweetened and sarsaparilla.

BORAX.

About 200 miles north from Los Angeles a refinery for borax is being erected in Slate Range. A gentleman who visited the HERALD office yesterday has promised this journal very full information as to the cultivation of this Industry. The paper will appear in a future issue. Merely superficial observation has shown that back of San Bernardino sufficient borax exists to supply the whole of the United States for two hundred years to come. In some places it is a foot thick, whilst in others the depth is over three feet. Crude borax which contains 70 per cent. after refinement, can be snipped to San Francisco at an expense of $47 per ton. It will realize in the city from $135 to $140 per ton. Borax which unrefined contains 90 per cent. will sell for $150 per ton. It is a question as to the advisability of erecting refineries there. Borax requires very pure water to refine it, and the water near and around where it exists has been found invariably to contain iodine, alkali, borax, manganese and sodium. The borax blossoms contain all sorts of ingredients, but principally what is known as Glauber salts. They are of a very curious form, generally having six points protruding from the center like spokes from the box of a wheel.

Whether borax will ever be an important industry it is difficult to say. The above facts are merely a rough sketch of a very interesting article promised the HERALD on this subject.

Real Estate Transactions.

Deeds filed for record for the 24 hours ending at 4 o'clock, October 4, 1873, as reported for the DAILY HERALD by Judson & Gillette, Searchers of Records for Los Angeles county:

Geo. M. Jones to Abby P. Hall—½ acre in Mission San Gabriel, $1,200.

Nancy Ross to J. W. Bixby—Lot Nos. 2 and 6, block 7, ange 6, Wilmington, no consideration expressed.

T. A. Mayes to S. P. R. R. Co.—Strip 100 feet by 12¼ chains, on located line of road through lot 36 of the San Francisquito Rancho.

Jacob Schulter and wife to C. W. Wilson—S. W. ¼ of N. W. ¼ of S. E. ¼ section 16, T. 2 S, R. 13 W. S. B. meridian, 10 acres—$400.

George H. Horne to Henry Kroeger—north ½ lot 40 Lemon street, Anaheim, $500.

Jeromena Lopez to Trustees San Fernando School District—lot for school purposes in said district, $1.

The Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber met according to adjournment with a full Board present.

On motion, B. Dreyfus was elected a member.

On motion, Capt. More was requested to address the Chamber concerning the Soledad turnpike.

He stated that the distance and the time from Cerro Gordo to Los Angeles was less by this route than to San Fernando by the old. It would take two men six months to complete the road so that it would be passable. When the railroad passed beyond the San Fernando, then the road would be useless, as far as the Cerro Gordo trade was concerned, but large quantities of fuel would still be carted over it—probably employing 30 or 40 teams constantly.

After some talk concerning the feasibility of the county taking hold of the work, and issuing its bonds to support it, the statement was referred to the Committee on Highways.

Gov. Downey reported the newspaper and telegraph offices had received him very kindly and had promised that in their reports justice should be done Los Angeles.

That any commercial statistics which the board saw fit to telegraph, would be sent without cost and published.

That the Pacific Mail Company had issued orders to credit Los Angeles with its freight.

A report was received from the committee appointed to consider how deep water could be brought up to the wharf, what would be the probable cost, in what way the water would keep the channel clear, and what would be the cost of a hydrographic survey.

They reported the survey would cost $2,000 in gold. That two parallel lines of bulkhead might be built, 450 feet apart, and a channel 20 feet deep be dredged. The lines of bulkheads would be 16,500 feet in length. Tide gates might be constructed so as to let the water in from the bay, and then close by the action of the retiring waters, thus compelling all the water to find an outlet at the extremity of the bulkhead. The cost of the bulkheads and tide gates would be $160,000. The cost of dredging to a depth of 20 feet would be $168,750, providing the water did nothing in removing the earth. By this means for $300,000, a channel 20 feet in depth and three miles long could be made, which would have wharfage its entire length. This is necessary to complete the work already accomplished by the appropriation made.

A committee was appointed to draft a bill to Congress, making the appropriation for a hydrographic survey.

On motion, adjourned to Tuesday.

Southern Californian Teachers' Joint Institute.

The exercises of the Southern Californian Teachers' Joint Institute will commence on the 3d proximo, and last until the evening of the 7th. Teachers have been communicated with in Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, San Buenaventura, Kern county and San Diego. To Mr. McFadden is due the credit and energy of marking the closing year of his administration by thus calling into close communion the teachers and professors of the district. This reunion, spent as it will be in mutual instruction and in the cultivation of the sympathy which such meetings invariably produce in the participants, will be highly beneficial, and have a marked effect on our public educational establishments. The programme is only partially made up, and very far from complete. On three evenings during the session, lectures will be delivered by the following gentlemen, Dr. Lucky, J. M. Guinn and T. A. Saxon. The subjects of the lectures are not yet known, with the exception of that by Mr. Saxon, which will be Vocal Culture. It was very earnestly desired that Mr. Saxon should lecture on Chemistry, but the great expense of providing apparatus was a stumbling block not to be surmounted. Mr. McFadden is working might and main to make the meeting a success. The full programme, when complete, will be published in the HERALD. Subjoined is that portion which has been agreed upon:

ORDER OF EXERCISES.

C. C. Cummings—Compulsory Education.
W. P. McDonald—Corporal punishment.
Miss Bengough—Class exercise in Philosophy.
T. McPherson—Penmanship.
S. H. Butterfield—Class exercise in Reading.
W. H. Henderson—Essay on the profession of teaching.
Robert Furlong—Elementary law in the public schools.
Dayton A. Reed—Class exercise on mental arithmetic and an essay on algebra.
S. A. Weldon—Grammar.
F. M. Righter—Grammar by normal methods.

Books Donated to the Library.

Mr. Mondran has donated to the Library Association two valuable books, one being a finely bound volume of Horne Tooke,s "Diversions of Purly," and the other an abstruse mathematical work in the French language, entitled "Recherches Sur le Mouvement Uniforme Des Eaux."

Rev. J. W. Stump yesterday sent in five volumes, as follows: "Life, Speeches and Public Services of Abraham Lincoln," by J. H. Barrett, late Com. of Pensions; "History of the M. E. Church," in three volumes, by Rev. Dr. Bangs; and the "Study of Language," by Mercel. The first four volumes have substantial leather binding.

As considerable new shelving has been put up in the Library this week, room is now afforded for an additional number of books, and our citizens who have a few volumes to spare, will do a good act by sending them in.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—While the steamship City of Antwerp was coming up the bay this morning the U. S. steamer Tallapoosa went alongside and took on board Capt. Buddington and his men. The Tallapoosa then steamed to the Navy Yard, and will leave for Washington as soon as possible with the rescued voyagers. Capt. Buddington stated that he was under martial law and could not make any statement concerning his eventful voyage. The Captain and his associates are all in good health.

No bank statement will be issued to-day. Specie shipments amounted to $100,000 in silver bars. Robinson & Sydan, J. Severd & Co., and G. White, who had temporarily suspended payment, all settled up to-day, and were again admitted to the stock exchange.

MISCELLANEOUS.

WILKSBARRE, PA., Oct. 4.—George Law was shot dead last night while in the act of robbing a garden near here.

SCHUYLER, NEB., Oct. 4.—A terrible parricide occurred in this county a few days ago. John Fahey, while temporarily insane, killed his father and attempted to kill his sister.

CAIRO, ILL., Oct. 4.—The Mayor of this city has issued a proclamation quarantining all the steamers from the lower Mississippi river.

BOSTON, Oct. 5.—Lamper & Co., grain dealers, have suspended. Their liabilities are stated at $300,000; assets $500,000.

PARIS, Oct. 4.—The Republican members of the General Assembly are hastening to Paris for consultation, and expect to adopt a line of action in opposition to the schemes of the monarchists.

SALINAS, Oct. 4.

Lorenzo Vasquez was to-day examined before Justice McCandless on a charge of complicity on the Tres Pinos murder and as an accessory after the fact of harboring and assisting felons to escape. He was held to appear before the grand jury under $5,000 bonds.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 4.

Occident trotted against time, made first-half mile in 1 min. 12 sec., and the mile in 2 min. 21 sec.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 4.

The recovery of bullion, alluded to in the HERALD's Southern dispatches of the 2d inst., is thus related at length by the San Diego Daily World:

A somewhat singular circumstance occurred Wednesday. Mr. John Dye drove the Julian stage into San Diego as usual. When it left Julian the treasure-box of Wells, Fargo & Co. was put up beside the driver. It contained ten thousand dollars in bullion, the result of the last run of the Golden Chariot. When the vehicle reached the Sauta Maria, Mr. Stokes thought it needed balancing, and he there took the box off the seat and placed it in the "boot." No further attention was given to the matter, and when Dye reached San Diego, he found that the treasure was missing. He at once started back on his tracks to recover the bullion, if possible.

Mr. Davies, senior, was in town Wednesday, and in the evening he returned home by the Mission grade. In descending the grade, he saw a box lying in the roadway. Alighting, he found it, on examination, to be the treasure box of Wells, Fargo & Co. Putting it in his wagon, he carried it home, and sat up all night to guard it. Early in the morning he hitched up and brought the precious package to its consignees. the agents of Wells, Fargo & Co.

The consternation of our friend Dye may be imagined on finding the mishap of which he was very nearly being made the victim. He will doubtless think less of the "boot," in future as a depository for such precious freight. It was a fortunate thing that it fell into the hands of a man of approved probity, or little, doubtless, would ever have been heard of it but for that.

Eli Perkins writes that Dan Marks, a veteran baggage smasher, experienced religion at Round Lake, N. Y., and has since confessed in open meeting that he has smashed $13,000 worth of trunks in twelve years, and had been too sick a good deal of the time to attend personally to the business.

Los Angeles Herald.

The Local Press on the "Herald.'

The DAILY HERALD made its appearance in Los Angeles last Thursday morning. It is a little larger than the Express, printed on clear, readable type, and edited with ability. It is an enterprise which," if successfully conducted, will have an immense influence for good on the future of Los Angeles, and from the liberal way in which our business houses of all classes are represented in its advertising columns, they would seem to appreciate its importance. We hope it may prove the Herald of a new era in the progress of Los Angeles. Although it is a larger paper than the Mirror, we are not jealous, and wish it unbounded success.—[Mirror.

LOS ANGELES HERALD.

This is the name of an elegant newspaper that made its appearance on the 2d of October, 1873, in the city of Los Angeles. The want of an independent paper written in English was somewhat felt, and, according to all appearances, the HERALD has filled the void, thus meeting the wishes and aspirations of all. As soon as we read its programme we pronounced it a paper par excellance; but we must avow, in truth and honor, that reality has surpassed our boldest conjectures.

It is almost useless to assert that the public in general will know how to appreciate the sterling qualities of the HERALD, and will extend its sympathy toward so worthy an enterprise by supporting and patronizing the same.

Its programme is terse, clear and concise; it pleases us by the strength of mind it shows, the very good object it has in view, and the straight-forward thought by which it is directed. Devoted to the interests of Southern California and Arizona, no money can change its course, and, with a varied and entertaining stock of new and miscellaneous reading, it will be a good source of amusement, instruction and entertainment to all classes of society, here and elsewhere.

Among other things, it will defend and support the rights of our State, and oppose centralization; it will favor white immigration, and oppose that of the Chinese; finally, it will be the true and staunch supporter of the rights of the people, and the sworn enemy of all monopolies.

It is not an easy thing to follow the line of conduct that the HERALD has taken, and hard and painful is the task that its managers have undertaken. Nevertheless, by what we have already seen, in so far as we are enabled to judge by the first numbers, we can hope that the HERALD will nobly and energetically fulfill its mission, and we have not the least doubt in the world that the intelligent portion of the people of California, understanding the sacrifices and cost of an enterprise of such magnitude, will lend their most decided support to the paper we recommend, and that is endorsed unanimously by the press.

And it must not be thought for a moment that this opinion of ours is in any way engendered by any prejudice of ours in favor of the HERALD; our commendations are already almost useless and of hardly any strength, as every one has passed judgment upon it, and it has been unanimously favorable.

The dimensions of the HERALD are 24x36 inches, and it is, therefore, not only the largest paper in Southern California, but also the most elegant, being a model of typographical art. Its proprietors, by the important enterprise they have undertaken, and its editors, by the difficult task they have taken on their shoulders, are entitled to the support and earnest congratulations of the people.

We will not close this article without wishing them a long life and fruitful results.—[La Cronica.

The Los Angeles HERALD made its appearance yesterday, and is a fine looking paper. It is to be published daily and weekly. The Herald has a fine large job office attached to its concern, and will in a few weeks run its whole establishment by steam. We wish it entire success.—[Star.

THE LOS ANGELES DAILY HERALD.

It is a significent sign of the onward march of our city and section that an intelligent journalist, backed alone by his own capital and his native pluck, has singled out Los Angeles as an inviting field for another daily morning newspaper enterprise. In the whole range of practical reflection, there is nothing more difficult than for one to form an exact and correct idea of the progress—and the possibilities and probabilities of progress,—in one's own immediate surroundings. Insensibly we grow with the growth of a place; we mark its advancement at long epochal stages; but rarely do we ourselves perceive and fully appreciate the full bearing of the march during the process of progression. Thus it is that new accesións of population exercise their most advantageous influences. They bring new thoughts with them; they see our situation from a new standpoint, and are not bound by old landmarks and prescriptive usages. While, perhaps, many of us have vague and distinct and even correct ideas of the posibilities of the future, the circumference of our horizon is bound by a narrower periphery than that of the intelligent man fresh from the great panorama of the rest of the world. We cannot see ourselves as others see us; nor can we see the physical indications of progress in our midst with the same expanding eye that others can. We are not singular in this. The same rule would hold of ourselves, if we were the soldiers of fortune carving out a new career in other places. Therefore we say that the appearance in Los Angeles this morning of a brand new, handsome and well edited sheet, bearing upon its face all the marks and impress of a new and promising newspaper departure in our midst, is a sign which we greet with unfeigned gratification. Should we attempt to theorize upon its future success from old experiences and contracted ideas of our capacity as a community, we would be flying in the face of the very wisdom which we say every growing place evolves, and which we have tried to explain above. "Provincial" pride shall not induce us to say a word which we may hereafter have to take back to our own confusion. We shall say that the worthy projector of this enterprise is a better judge of these things than we are ourselves; that he has scanned the field with the perspicuous acuteness which only a brave and new eye can bring to the task; and that he has seen his way clear to a realization of his successful purpose; and from this conclusion we deduce the hopeful and gratifying lesson that Los Angeles is entering an era of prosperity greater than we had before dared fancy to ourselves. We give the intrepid journalist a cordial welcome, and we bespeak for him everywhere a hearty and a generous consideration.—[Express.

The Judicial Election.

EDITOR HERALD:—I read to-night with great disgust the communication of Anti-Monarchist in last Evening's Express. The Judicial Election has nothing whatever to do with the fact of Judge Sepulveda, being either a Mexican Monarchist or Republican. He claims the office as an American citizen; he asks the suffrages of the people not on the score of his former Mexican politics, but as an American citizen, a good judge and a gentleman, "sans peur et sans reproche."

Personally I shall support Mr. Glassell, from pure motions of friendship, but I claim the privilege of shielding an honorable gentleman from the dastardly acts of anonymous scribblers. Whether he unsheathed his sword as a Monarchist or Republican, his bravery is unimpugned, his legal knowledge unassailed, and no argument advanced that could be brought to bear on a contest such as that between Andrew Glassell and Judge Sepulveda.

Whoever wins, let some dignity be maintained in a contest for such high office, and leave it to county politics to wallow in mire as deep as that of a Connecticut hog-pen.

I remain, &c.,
Yours obediently.
ANTI-CORRUPTION.

Growth of Anaheim.

No better evidence of the steady growth of that portion of the county lying between the San Gabriel river and the Santa Ana mountains, can be afforded than an inspection of the filled warehouses of the Lighter Company at Anaheim Landing. The past season has been one of the worst ever experienced, and the complaint has been that the crops of grain were, or would be, unusually light. As soon, however, as the advance in price was generally known, an amount of grain comes forward for shipmen largely in excess of any past year. If it is true, as stated, that the soil has not yielded well, the conclusion is at once forced upon us that the number of producers has been materially increased. The Los Angeles press state that the exports from Wilmington are in excess of past years, consequently our landing has not diverted shipments from that point. A larger amount of wool is also being received at the landing than in previous years. This, however, can be accounted for by the return of large flocks of sheep from Lower California and the southern country, where they were driven in search of pasturage two years ago. Although it is too early to make a correct estimate of the vintage for the present year, still it is known that the yield is much larger than was anticipated.

If, with all the drawbacks, both physical and financial, which have tended to retard our growth during the past, so flattering an exhibit is made, it will be impossible to conceive the impetus which will be given to this section by the successful completion of railroad communication and irrigating facilities, now in their inception. The only thing, therefore, wanting to make the country a paradise, has been water. Now that the Land Company have taken the matter in hand, and give every assurance that they will not turn back until the whole of their lands are placed under irrigation, this want promises to be filled with the smallest practicable delay.—[Anaheim Californian.

Communicated.

Religion.

Religion is the offspring ot ruth and love, and the parent of benevolence, hope and joy. It commands men to be happy, and only forbids them to be miserable; leads us by degrees to do that from choice which its laws require of us, till we find our truest liberty in its apparent restraints.

Its "yoke is easy," and its "burdens light." All it requires is to do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with God.

There is no command in Bt he ible forbiding innocent recreation and pleasure. There is a beauty, harmony, joyousness in true piety, that would win the love and respect for religion, if its pretended friends did not made it a thing of gloom, by denying its adherents all proper recreation and enjoyment, and adding afflictive ceremonies and sorrows.

PROSPECTUS

—OF—

THE LOS ANGELES HERALD.

The first of October, THE LOS ANGELES HERALD, a daily and weekly newspaper, will make its appearance. The Daily will be a neat and tastily printed seven-column newspaper, newsy rather than literary in character. The Weekly will be a six-column, eight-page paper, and will contain the most important matter that has previously appeared in THE DAILY HERALD.

It is proposed that the HERALD shall be an unbought advocate of every interest pertaining to Southern California and Arizona, and a zealous worker in all things that shall tend to benefit the State. In a word it will be in close communion with the People. In its columns, from time to time will be found matters of interest to the California Farmer, Mechanic, Merchant, Laborer, and all classes of Producers; and it will also contain reading matter suited to the Home Circle.

The HERALD will be an Independent Democratic journal and its efforts directed to sweeping from power and place those now mismanaging the affairs of the Nation. For the accomplishment of this end, it will hail with satisfaction the co-operation of the members of all Parties, believing that the prosperity, perhaps safety, of the Nation depends upon the success of a movement of this character. It is "reform now or revolution hereafter."

The HERALD will advocate State Rights and oppose Centralization; it will encourage White and oppose Coolie Immigratien. It will favor Free Trade, and oppose Protective Tariff; it will advocate a Greenback Currency for California, and oppose the present dwarfing and deadening policy which upholds the present ruinous rates of interest and shuts out Eastern capital. It will advocate the People and oppose Monopolies, no matter what guise they may assume.

While the HERALD will treat Slavery as a dead issue, it will earnestly advocate the right of every State, be it Northern or Southern—Massachusetts or South Carolina—to govern itself in accordance with the wishes of its people, and the dictates of the Federal Constitution, without national interference.

The HERALD will opppse thieving and peculation. No man rightly owns a dollar until he earns it. Every dollar which is taken from the public treasury or private purse without a just return is robbery, and he who takes this money is a thief. Believing this, the HERALD will oppose salary steals, custom steals, land steals, railroad steals, and every kind of steals.

Each day, the fullest Foreign and Domestic Telegrams will be published. The aim will be to supply, in this part of the State, the demand heretofore filled by the San Francisco dailies. No trouble or expense will be spared to make the HERALD, in this respect, equal to any newspaper on the Coast. It will also contain a full Review of the Local and Foreign Markets, and the Trades generally, honestly and carefully compiled.
